DETAILED ACTION

Reasons for Allowance

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: none of the cited references either alone or in combination teach or suggest limitation(s) as recited in independent claims:

claim 1 – determines whether data is read substantially more frequently than it is written and replicates the data that is read substantially more frequently than it is written among the plurality of processing nodes; and/or claim 13 – identifying whether at least a portion of data of a certain class used by the processing nodes is read substantially more frequently than it is written; and replicating copies of the data of that class in the local memories.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
